Re: M.C., et al. v. New York City Department of Education
07 CV 8323

Dear Judge Holwell:

I am writing to advise the Court of the status of the current matter as the initial conference is currently scheduled for January 4, 2007 at 11am.

Since we last appeared before Your Honor, the parties have settled the claims of CP and her son, MC, and those claims were withdrawn last week pursuant to a settlement agreement. The parties have also been negotiating the settlement of the claims of PA and his son, IA, and are also discussing a resolution of how to proceed concerning LP. We continue to be optimistic about our ability to resolve the claims raised in this case. Moreover, as you are aware, Defendants filed their answer on December 31, 2007. Due to the holiday, however, Plaintiffs have not yet had time to review the answer.

In light of the above, Plaintiffs respectfully request that the conference currently scheduled for Friday be adjourned, so that the parties can continue their settlement discussions and have some additional time to meet to develop a scheduling order if it appears that the case is going forward on behalf of either family. Defendants' counsel has consented to this request for an adjournment.

Respectfully,

Elisa Hyman, Esq. (EH 4709)
